

Mr. Damon opened a box of cookies and used half for his children's lunches. Later, Mr. Damon and a neighbor each ate two cookies. When Mrs. Damon arrived home, she ate the last three cookies. How many cookies were originally in the box?

---

2. During a four-day sale, a store sold twice as many televisions on the second day as the first day. On the third day, 21 televisions were sold and 13 televisions were sold on the final day. If 109 televisions were sold during the sale, how many were sold on the first day only?
-

3. Jerry subtracted six from his age, multiplied the result by three, added eight, and then divided by two. The result was 19. How old is Jerry?
-

4. Olivia purchased an $ 800.00 gold necklace using money she received as gifts, and earned working in the library. She had birthday gifts of $ 30.00 from her aunt, and $ 50.00 from her grandfather. How much money did Olivia earn until she had enough money to pay for the necklace?
-

5. Mr. Zeeman received a tax refund. He spent $ 40.00 on take out food, and used one third of the remaining money to buy a new vacuum cleaner. After he deposited half of what was left into his bank account, he still had $ 80.00 left. How much was his tax refund?
-

6. A shuttle bus makes a loop around the town. When it arrived at the Plaza there were already several passengers aboard, but no one got on or off. At the Mall, five passengers got off and eight boarded. At the Lake ten got off and only two got on. The remaining eight passengers got off at the Movies. How many people were on the bus as it arrived at the Plaza?
-

7. Paula exercises for 20 minutes each morning, then spends an hour getting ready for school. She walks 5 minutes to Starbucks where she spends 15 minutes eating breakfast. She walks three minutes to the bus and rides 40 minutes to school. If the bus arrives at school at exactly 9:00 A. M. what is the latest Paula must wake up?
-

8. On Monday afternoon, the price of Intel stock fell three points. On Tuesday, the price rose up 5 points, but on Wednesday and Thursday it fell 2 points each day. On Friday the stock gained one point to close at 32. What was the price of the stock on Monday morning?
-